Message from the First Vice President

I would like to thank all the volunteers for making 2010 a very successful year. You all worked hard to make all the events wonderful and a pleasure to attend, not to mention profitable. Through your help we were able to bring in much-needed funds which will help with projects around the museum.

We are working on some very fun events again for this year. Have you heard that the Phantom Ball will take place on March 32, morning, noon or night at your Favorite Spot? If not, read your invitation that will be mailed to each of you or call Jeanette Lawson. May 7 will be our Spring Tea, which is an outstanding event held at the museum.

Also in the works for 2011: We will be working with local Miwok representatives to set up an exhibit at the museum on the history of the Miwok in the Sacramento Valley. We will have photos and artifacts from tribal collections upstairs in the museum; and we'll be working on an outside exhibit. Look for our Open House on February 5 for the Miwok display.

Remember, this is your museum and we would like your ideas on what you would like to have and see at the hotel site. Maybe you would like a bus trip that we could plan? Let us hear from you.

PRESIDENT STILL NEEDED!

- Elaine Wright

Annual Spring Tea: "Hats from the Past"

Our annual spring tea will be held on Saturday, May 7, 2011 at the museum. This year's theme will be "Hats from the Past". The featured entertainment will be St. Mark's United Methodist Women's "Fashion Memories" - a fashion show with outfits from 1880 to the 1960's.

Tickets for this event will go on sale February 1 and are $25 for members and their guests. Ticket sales will be limited to 160 tickets and once those are sold a waiting list will be established, so be sure to get yours early! Ticket sales to the general public will begin March 1 and are also $25 each. We will have a silent auction and are looking for donations. If you would like to donate or purchase tickets, please contact Annaclare at 686-8238.

We're also looking for larger recycled baskets to make silent auction gift baskets. If you have any you'd be willing to donate, please bring them to the hotel or call 685-8115 to make other arrangements.

Rhoads School Report

Rhoads School
 Established 1872

The long-planned-for Handicap Ramp for the Rhoads School is now a reality. Construction was completed in December, thanks to the wonderful perseverance of Jim Entrican, Elaine Wright, and a dedicated CSD facilities administrator, Priscilla Oliver. It will be available to anyone with a need when school classes resume in February.

The School Board is now planning a Dedication Event that will be held at the school in March (date to be determined soon). The purpose of the dedication will be to show our thanks to the many individuals and organizations that have worked with us through the last four years, donating their time, their efforts, and their funds. It has been a long, and often frustrating experience, and we're happy to have it completed.

The March newsletter will have the date, and we hope to see you there.

Just My Opinion By Tom Russell

Sometimes when we sit back and think of the olden days, we imagine what it must have been like here in Elk Grove. Unless we have lived during the time we are thinking about, we must create a mental image of that time, much like a movie. I sit in my chair and envision what Main Street must have been like in 1890, before the big fire. There were no cars, airplanes, televisions, electricity and basically no hot or cold running water. People happily went about their business and put up with what we, today, would consider major inconveniences.

We see old photographs that help us envision a single point in time of Elk Grove, but we have to create a movie in our mind to complete our vision. One of the pictures I recall is the photograph of the Toronto Hotel in 1888. A photographer had come to town and had been asked to take a picture so everyone gathered for the photo. In the street with his 8 X 10 camera, the photographer set up his tripod and equipment while Frank and Mary Graham stepped out on the balcony with their new baby daughter Elizabeth, and a friend, Mary Dolsen. The baby would eventually become Mrs. George Foulks. Down stairs, the staff and patrons gather and make small talk while waiting for the big moment. The barber and a friend see what is going on and decide to get into the picture also. Everything is ready and the photographer tells everyone that they need to hold perfectly still for ten seconds. The shout of "Hold It" is heard and everyone stops motion for the required ten seconds then life goes back to normal.

Possibly a train that could be heard chugging from along way off, rolls into town with its bell clanging and black smoke rolling out of the stack. If you are anywhere around the railroad tracks, you can feel the soot raining down. Ranchers, farmers and their wives and children have just returned from a trip to the big city of Sacramento while others are continuing on to Galt, Stockton or further. Wagons and carriages are arriving, kicking up dust as they proceed to pick up their cargo delivered via the train.

We look at the picture of a moment of the Toronto Hotel over 112 years ago, and wonder what it was like to get the photograph and what it was like to be there at that time. What was going on in Elk Grove on that afternoon? It is that mental movie that brings the image to life. As with many of the old photographs, either of people, buildings or gatherings, we have to create mental images so the picture has some life to it. Even with photographs that show nothing but a building with either a horse drawn wagon or an old 1920 car in front, we have to imagine that there is some life inside that building like people talking business, buying groceries, deciding on cloth for a dress or children looking at jars of penny candy?

As the years advance, the town and people change so it is forgotten what it was like before. The cherished memories of the old days come to us in the form of photographs. From these pictures we can imagine or remember what was happening. Even pictures from a few years ago can bring back mental images of what was happening at that moment, the family gathering, a party, a child's first steps or that first new car and make it exciting.
